

Northern Potential

Inspired partnerships: forging new paths to education and opportunity

Together, we're on the trail to student success:
An update from the Yukon University Foundation Board

We can't thank you enough for continuing to inspire student success and for investing in Northern potential. This year, more than ever, your donation has ensured that Yukon College students are able to pursue their dreams and thrive, as they continue their studies in new and innovative ways under unprecedented circumstances.

Your support helps open the doors to education, and helps Yukon College students access the infinite possibilities of their future. Thank you for being a partner on the pathway to student success.
